

St Augustine's Catholic Primary School

Welcome to a New Year - September 2019

We are delighted to see all the children back in school after the summer break and are looking forward another hard-working, fun-filled year as we continue to aim for the best in all that we do.

Thank you for sending in the children in their fresh uniforms - they all look wonderful!

School reading bags (£6.50) can be purchased from the office staff.

Important letters are being circulated about an opportunity to meet your child's new teacher. Please check your child's bag every night.

"BUILDING THE KINGDOM"

Our group of Catholic schools is following this additional programme linked to Religious Education. The children will explore practical ways of living the Gospel Message in their daily lives. Our Teacher Day next week is a shared training day for members of staff from all the schools in the group to develop this exciting programme.
